

Heber Handspringers

Attend Regional Meet

Wave 3 May 1981

Some tumblers of the Heber Handspringers, under the direction of Beverly Lloyd and Donna Christensen, attended the USAF (United States Aerogymnastics Federation) Meet in Casper, Wyoming, on April 28.

Attending were Jenny Lloyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Lloyd, Larie Lloyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Lloyd, Jackie Webb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Webb, Diana and Christine Besendorfer, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John Besendorfer, and Leslie Ivers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leland B. Ivers. This was the first time members of the Heber Handspringers had competed on an Advanced Level at a Regional Meet. All the girls did an exceptional job, competing for the chance to go to Nationals to be held in Las Vegas, Nevada, later this year.

Gaining special honors were Jackie Webb, who placed fourth in the 9-10 age group and Jenny Lloyd who placed third in the 8 and under age group. This qualified them for Nationals in Las Vegas.

Competition was very tough as teams from Nevada, Idaho, Colorado, Utah and Wyoming attended the meet. There were over 200 competitors.

The girls and their parents would like to thank Bev Lloyd and Donna Christensen, coaches, for preparing them for this experience.
